THE LOG CABIN AT COBBLESTONE FARM, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN:

History of the log cabin from 1868 to 1966
when it was owned by the Rust and Phelps families

By Pamela S. Gibb

The log cabin at Cobblestone Farm in Ann Arbor, Michigan, was originally located at 8691 McKean Road, Willis, Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan.

> According to the Wikipedia.org website: Willis is an unincorporated community in the northeast corner of the township at 42°09'30"N 83°33'29"W. It is also the name of a post office for the ZIP Code 48191 serving most of the eastern portion of the township. The village was founded in 1881 when the Wabash Railroad built the Detroit to St Louis rail line between Eaton Mills and Paint Creek. The Village's name changed from Willis, to Pottersville to Newcomb, before officially becoming Willis on Dec 15, 1887. The train station operated from 1881 to 1952. The local people donated the materials and built the station themselves in 1881. It was rebuilt after a fire in 1904. Willis used to have a creamery, a grist mill, a pickle factory, several stores, a sawmill, a barber shop and several churches. The first business in the community was Howell's General Store. It was founded in the 1850s and is still in use as Boneheads BBQ Restaurant. Willis still has a small business community that is anchored by the post office that has been here since 1881, Boneheads Restaurant and the Willis Feed Mill.

The following is a brief family history as it pertains to the log cabin now located at Cobblestone Farm. My name is Pam (Hurst) Gibb, my mother is Lois (Corkins) Hurst, and my grandmother, Agnes (Rust) Corkins, was born in the log cabin on March 24, 1889. Although she never lived there, other family members did. I remember visiting the log cabin as a child in the 1950s when Jessie Phelps lived there. My mother used to visit there often as a child and has several memories of the place. When I brought my mother to see the log cabin at Cobblestone Farm in September 2018, the first thing she said was that it was backwards. What she meant by that is that as we approached, it was the back/rear entrance, not the front, and she was correct about that. Interesting to note that the front of the log cabin is facing west at the Cobblestone Farm just as it did on McKean Road. My mother passed away in January 2022, at 100 years of age, shortly after this article was written. But during many conversations over the years, and including several recent conversations, she gave a brief description of her recollections.

> "When you pull into the driveway, on the right is a grape arbor that goes all the way from the road to the house. They made wine and jelly from these grapes." The driveway ended at the left front (west) corner of the house, but directly in front of the driveway was an "artesian well" located several feet away from the cabin. She remembers it as being a unique well. "The walls were built of brick, and there were two or three copper cups on a continuous chain that went over a wheel and were pulled up by the force of the water." She remembers being told that after you drink out of the copper cup you were to empty any remaining water on the ground rather than pour it back into the well as it would contaminate the water. There was a pipe that ran from the well into the cabin and into a sink so water could be pumped directly into the sink. At the front entrance of the cabin, the first thing you notice when walking in the door is that "the wood floor had sunk in around the door threshold" (the floor was constructed directly on the ground). There was a window on both the immediate left and right of the door. Also on the immediate left was a bunk bed and the mattresses were filled with corn husks. There was a ladder that leaned against the wall used to access the top bed. On the left (north) wall was a stairway that led to the upstairs loft/bedroom. The staircase started at the back (east side) of the cabin and went up to the west. There was a sink at the far left (northeast) corner of the cabin. Again, this is where the water was pumped into the house. The east wall was a mirror image of the west wall – an entry door flanked by a window on each side. Back to the front (west) entrance . . . In reference to the front window on the right, "Uncle Darno would sit by the window in his rocking chair and watch the cars go by." Keep in mind, McKean Road was a dirt road that was not well traveled, and this would have been in the 1920s. She also mentioned that he sat there and "watched the grapes grow". To the right of the front entrance was the "living room", and there was a window in the middle of the (south) wall. To the back on the right was a cookstove, and the kitchen table was in front of that. In the middle of the room was a pot belly stove used for heat.

Back of postcard was written to Agnes (Rust) Corkins from her mother Eva (Bennett) Rust: "To Agnes, the house where you were born".

Family history as it pertains to the log cabin -- beginning with James and Susan Rust.

The James Rust Family

James Rust was born November 3, 1829, in Norfolk, England, and died December 12, 1885, in the log cabin at 8691 McKean Road, Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. His wife, Susan (Towler) Rust, was born March 21, 1832, in Norfolk, England, and died February 18, 1895, also in the log cabin. Both James and Susan are buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road, Ypsilanti, Michigan. James Rust and Susan Towler were married March 26, 1856, and had two children, Amy Ann Rust (born December 6, 1856) and Francis John "Frank" Rust (born April 8, 1859). James and Susan lived in Rawsonville, Washtenaw County, Michigan, after their marriage, then purchased the log cabin in 1868* (more on the acquisition date later), so neither Amy nor Frank were born in the cabin. Both James and Susan continued to live in the log cabin for the remainder of their lives.

The Lewis Phelps Family

Lewis Phelps was born in 1829 in Massachusetts and died in 1863 in Michigan. His wife, Lucretia (Smith) Phelps, was born in 1830 in New Jersey and died in Michigan, presumably before 1870.

Lewis and Lucretia (Smith) Phelps had three children:

Delora A Phelps: Born September 14, 1850, in Freedom Township, Portage County, Ohio; died December 13, 1932, in Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. She married Artemas Ward Chase on November 19, 1893, in Ypsilanti, Michigan. Delora is buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road, Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Delnor D. Phelps: Born January 5, 1855, in Freedom Township, Portage County, Ohio; died October 29, 1910, in Ypsilanti, Michigan. He married Mary Jackson on April 18, 1891, in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Delnor is also buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road.

Dorno D. "Darno" Phelps: Details to follow.

NOTE regarding the name Dorno vs. Darno: Although some records, including census records, death certificates, and his grave marker, show the name Dorno with an "o", everyone called him Darno, with an "a". Therefore, this document will have both spellings of the name depending on the source.

The Dorno Phelps Family

Dorno D. "Darno" Phelps was born March 23, 1856, in Freedom Township, Portage County, Ohio, and died March 31, 1933, in Willis, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Amy Ann Rust was born December 6, 1856, in Rawsonville, Ypsilanti Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, and died April 7, 1933, in Willis, Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Note that Amy and Dorno were born in the same year (1856) and died in the same year (1933), only a week apart. Their daughter May died on March 21, 1933, Dorno died a week later on March 31, and Amy a week after that, on April 7. Both Dorno and Amy died at home in the log cabin, and both are buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Dorno and Amy (Rust) Phelps had four children, all born in the log cabin on McKean Road in Willis.

Blanche S. Phelps: Born February 22, 1881, in the log cabin; died January 13, 1909, at home in the log cabin. Blanche never married. Beginning in her childhood, she suffered severe health issues causing her to be an invalid. She died at the young age of 27 and is also buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road with a headstone engraved "Blanche S."

Jessie Lee Phelps: Born June 8, 1887, in the log cabin; died January 9, 1961, in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Jessie never married. She worked at the post office in Detroit and lived with Ralph Rust (her cousin) and his family during the week, then returned home to the log cabin on McKean Road on weekends. Jessie lived in the log cabin her entire life until her passing in 1961. Jessie is also buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road with a headstone engraved "Jessie L."

Norman A. Phelps: Born December 14, 1890, in the log cabin; died July 16, 1968, in Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio. He married Helen Marie (Williams) Bruce on December 14, 1918, in Columbus, Ohio. They had two children. Both Norman and Helen are buried in the Union Cemetery in Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio.

May W. Phelps: Born July 31, 1900, in the log cabin; died March 21, 1933, in Nankin (near Belleville), Wayne County, Michigan. On July 21, 1921, she married Owen D. Smith of Belleville, Michigan. They had one son. She is also buried in the Union-Udell Cemetery on Textile Road with a headstone engraved "May Phelps Smith".

The Frank Rust Family

Amy Rust's brother was Francis John "Frank" Rust, born April 8, 1859, in Rawsonville, Washtenaw County, Michigan; died November 20, 1932, in Rawsonville. His wife, Eva Adalaide Bennett, was born December 25, 1861, in Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan; died January 7, 1922, in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan. They married September 6, 1882, in Augusta Township, and had seven children: Ralph Rust (1883-1948); Mark J. Rust (1885-1965); Florence Rust (1887-1916); Agnes Rust (1889-1971); Mary Rust (1893-1958); Julia Rust (1894-1978); Allen Rust (1902-1926).

Frank and Eva also lived in Willis in another log cabin near the corner of Rawsonville and Willis Roads, about a mile from Frank's sister Amy Phelps. When it was time for Eva to give birth, she went to the log cabin, and Amy (a nurse) assisted in the birth of Agnes (my grandmother). Although Agnes (born March 24, 1889) was born in the log cabin, she never lived in the log cabin. It is also assumed that all seven of Frank and Eva's children were born in the log cabin, but only Agnes' birth can be confirmed. Since Frank Rust lived in the log cabin, his wife Eva (Bennett) Rust gave birth there, and his daughter Agnes was born there, only their photos are shown here.

Miscellaneous Notes

Darno and Amy (Rust) Phelps were married in the log cabin November 5, 1879, and lived in the log cabin with her parents and younger brother, Frank, following their marriage. At this point the log cabin became their permanent home.

Darno and Amy (Rust) Phelps celebrated their 50th anniversary on November 5, 1929, and an article in "The Ypsilanti Press" on November 6, 1929, concluded with:

> "The courtship of more than three years ended November 5, 1879, when Amy A. Rust became the wife of D. D. Phelps, in a quiet ceremony in the log cabin which had been her home for 11 years. There was no town of Willis then, for the Wabash railroad did not come until the next year. Both Mr. and Mrs. are 73 years old, she having been born on Dec 6, 1856, and he on March 23, 1856. Mrs. Phelps has lived all of her life in Washtenaw County except for a brief stay in Wayne."

*Based upon this article, the log cabin acquisition date of 1868 by James and Susan Rust was determined. This date was also proven to be correct as reported in James Rust's obituary, shown in the second half of this article.

1880 Census: The 1880 Census for Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. 11 June 1880. Census taken by Geo. H. Smith, Enumerator. Lists the following people living in the log cabin: James Rust, Susan Rust, Francis J. Rust, Darno Phelps (listed as Darnald F. Phelpse), and George Towler (listed as George Toller). The birthplace of James Rust is listed as New York, which is incorrect. It should be England. Note that it doesn't list daughter Amy (Rust) Phelps but does list "Darnald" Phelps as a son-in-law. Also in the 1880 Census for Augusta Township (not shown), Amy (Rust) Phelps, a nurse, was temporarily living in the neighboring home of S. P. Ballard as a caretaker.

James Rust had passed away on December 12, 1885, so he was not listed in the 1894 Census.

Pam (Hurst) Gibb was born and raised in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and now resides in Saline. Now retired, she worked for the UM Medical School as a Student Coordinator. Family research includes several 3x great-grandparents that came to Washtenaw County in the early 1800s (Bennett, Sherman, Corkins, Rust).

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1833–1871, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN (Part One)

Translated & transcribed by John H. Schmale, and Rob Steward, 1986
Reviewed and updated by Rob and Cyndy Steward, 2022

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. They also may be accessed online at https://deepblue.lib.umich.edu/handle/2027.42/99579 through M Library Deep Blue Documents Record of Marriages, 1833–1871 (umich.edu) in PDF format.

Marriage records were not required to be registered with the Washtenaw County Clerk's Office until 1867, although some earlier records are available at the county. The records at the county level usually appear by the date the records were turned in for recording, and in groups by the person who submitted the records for recording. The first entry located for one of Rev. Schmid's marriages in the Washtenaw County records was "Received for Record 2 Feb. 1839". "On 30 Oct. 1838 at Saline, Daniel Weinett of Saline, age 32, married Catharine Scaftenberg of Saline, age 24; witnesses: B. Weinett, F. Laubengaier". In comparison, Rev. Schmid's marriage records for the year 1838, marriage #12 lists "Daniel Weinnett, a shoemaker, son of Jakob & Barbara Weinnett, born 7 Aug. 1807, married 29 Oct. 1838, in Saline, by Rev. Schmid to Catharina Schutsenberger, daughter of Georg Jakob & Barbara Schutsenberger, born 12 Feb. 1815."

Rev. Schmid occasionally submitted for recording; a marriage not listed in his record book. On 7 Jan. 1848, Rev. Schmid submitted to Washtenaw County eight marriages covering dates from April to December of 1847. One marriage, recorded as 1 May 1847 for "Willhelm Reinfrank and Margaretha Kufer", both of Bridgewater, is not in his record book, while nine other marriages in his record book during that time frame were not submitted with the others at Washtenaw County.

The handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. Rev. Schmid also was not consistent in the way he spelled words, especially names and places. We have chosen to maintain the spelling Rev. Schmid used for the names of people. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. The marriages are listed chronologically. Items enclosed in parentheses are comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings or additional information.

Rev. Schmid's Marriage Entries from 1833–1857 are in a two-page, pre-printed column heading format. Beginning in 1858 the columns are hand drawn in the two-page format until entry #18.

Number (of the marriage – 1833–1837 and within a particular year beginning in 1838);
Names of Groom and Bride;
Position, Character, Occupation, Residence (Occasionally he lists religion in this area but usually it is used to give the occupation of groom until 1851);
Parents (after 1847 Rev. Schmid usually does not list parents); and Single, Divorced, Widow/Widower (This area is seldom used after 1858).

Columns on the right page are: (with three columns not used: royal permission, banns, and dispensations)

Born - When, Where (Gives birth dates until 1839 when it changes to age. O.A. or Ober. is a German term indicating a larger governmental unit, i.e., "county");
Place & Time subdivided into columns to list Date of the Marriage;
Clergyman who married them (Rev. Schmid was the only one listed in this column).

In order to provide clarity, the Groom's information is indicated with the letter "a." following the number given in the record. The marriage date is the last entry in the Groom's line of information in order to follow the format of the original record more closely. The Bride's information is indicated with the letter "b." We have chosen to omit the columns listed above as "Not used" and the "Clergyman" column since Rev. Schmid was the only minister listed in these records. Missing information is indicated with three dashes (---). The end of column entries are indicated with a semi colon (;).

THE MUEHLIG FUNERAL HOME RECORDS, 1882–1889, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

(Part One)

Transcribed by Patty Baird

The Muehlig Funeral Home has been a part of Ann Arbor history since 1852, beginning at 103 S. Main, and moving to 403 South Fourth Ave in 1928. The house in which it is located was originally built as a residence, then became a hospital, and finally the funeral home.

These records are from the Muehlig Funeral Chapel Records, 1882–1889, Box 1, "early miscellaneous", Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan; printed with their permission. We think that the first, fourth and fifth names are African Americans. Looking for proof.

Some of the names were difficult to transcribe, and the spelling was certainly not standardized, particularly the cause of death. Note that there appears to be a problem with the year of death in lines 2 thru 6 on page 18. Look for more about the Muehlig Family in the introduction to Part Two.

MARRIAGE OF MATTHEW GRIFFIN AND MISS ELLA STEVENS, YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN, 1870 MARRIED.

In the Presbyterian Church, in Ypsilanti, May 26, by Rev. G. L. Foster, Matthew Griffin, Esq., of Cincinnati, Ohio, to Miss Ella, only daughter of P. Stevens, Esq., of Ypsilanti.

The church was thronged–the "reception," too, was large–and the presents were rich, particularly the silver set, presented in appreciation of Ella's worth as a member of the choir. Somehow that choir seems particularly unfortunate in losing its members in this way. E. J. Mills, its efficient leader, expressed some discouragement upon the occasion, but was finally led to hope that what might seem to be against him, after all make it easy for him to keep a full choir.
